AMFA – Alaska Airlines Negotiations

Update #13   November 10, 2023

This week we reached out to Alaska Airlines to schedule dates to re-engage and continue negotiations. The scheduled locations are tentative due to having limited space for observers. We can only have ten observers in the Columbia Room at the McGee Building on the first day, and then twenty observers in the Bravo Room at the Hub Building on the second day. We have requested that the Company continue looking for space that can accommodate twenty-five observers each day. We will keep you updated with any changes.

If you are interested in being an observer, please reach out to your Airline Representative or Local President to be put on the schedule to attend. The spots will be split evenly between Local 14 and Local 32, but all spots will be filled if a Local does not fill their spots.

The following dates have been scheduled to re-engage in negotiations.

Date:	Location:	Time:
November 28, 2023	Seattle, McGee Building Columbia Room	9:00 AM to Open
November 29, 2023	Seattle, Hub Bravo Rooms	9:00 AM to Open

In Solidarity,

Your AMFA-Alaska Negotiating Committee
