AIRCRAFT MECHANICS FRATERNAL ASSOCIATION

Website Registration

National and Local Websites Now Linked for Seamless Registration

As an AMFA member, when you register on the AMFA National website, https://www.amfanational.org, you are automatically registered on your local union website.

Register for AMFA National Website

Use the QR code to the right to register for the AMFA National website.

Complete the New User Registration section. If you do not know your AMFA number, leave it blank and it will be entered by AMFA National during the approval process.

Once you have completed your registration head over to sign up for MemberLink.

Note: It may take up to 72 business hours for your registration to be verified by an official and your online account to be activated.

MemberLink Registration

If you are already a member of the AMFA National website be sure to join MemberLink too. Use the QR code to the right to sign up today!

MemberLink Platform Gives Members Added Control

MemberLink puts AMFA members in control of their information. This online portal allows members to view their AMFA record, update contact information, if necessary, and members can even make dues payments there.

Steps to Register:

- Scan the QR Code or visit: https://members.amfanational.org and select "Sign Up Now"

- Enter your information and select "Register"